

ROCK RIVER CLAIMS LIVES OF TWO DIXON BOYS

DIXON PREPARES
FOR AN INVASION
EARLY SATURDAYDollar Day Bargains to Draw Crowds of Shoppers to the City

Thrifty shoppers from all parts of Dixon's trade territory will converge upon the city Saturday to take advantage of Dollar Day, which comes to Dixon but twice a year.

Dollar Day is bargain day . . . and it does not mean in units of the straight dollar. Whatever you buy in cooperating stores on Saturday will be specially priced.

Whether you wish to spend a half dollar or hundreds of dollars, you are urged to use this day to make all of your purchases for some time to come. The very items you will be buying for the next several months will be sold on Dollar Day at great savings.

Outstanding Chance

Being a merchandising event that has held the interest of thrifty shoppers of the Dixon area since it was inaugurated several years ago, Dollar Day continues as one of the outstanding buying opportunities of the year. And the August Dollar Day is always a seasonable one, as merchants frequently make a considerable portion of their summer stocks available either at "dollar" prices or at corresponding reductions.

An unusual summer season, much cooler than those of recent years, and the cleaning out of warehouse stocks at rock-bottom prices place merchants in the position of being able to offer the most attractive prices in several years.

Study Today's Ads

All in all, next Saturday's Dollar Day is the sale you've been wanting . . . the sale that will make every dollar in your purse do its duty and more, too. For dollars have never been able to do quite so much as they'll accomplish on this Dollar Day.

If you haven't made arrangements for taking advantage of Dollar Day, you shouldn't delay another minute. Read The Telegraph's numerous pages of Dollar Day bargain offerings as an aid in making your selections TODAY — and then plan your shopping tour for SATURDAY.

Kenneth Abbott to
Nat. Aquatic School

Kenneth Abbott, scoutmaster of local Troop 89, has been appointed by the Lee County chapter of the Red Cross to attend the national American Red Cross Aquatic school at Oconomowoc, Wis., for ten days starting August 24.

This is the first year that the local chapter has sent a representative to any of these schools and it is now planned as a part of the Lee county chapter's annual program.

Students at the school receive instruction and training in life saving, swimming, boating, canoeing and water safety. Training will be given first aid and other health subjects.

Mr. Abbott was selected by the Red Cross committee because of his fine work with the youth of Dixon and his previous training. The I. N. U. company, with whom he is employed, has granted him leave of absence to attend the school.

The appointment of Mr. Abbott to this course is the beginning of what is hoped to be a bigger and better program in first aid and water activities in Dixon and Lee county. Red Cross officials said today. Robert Sterling is chairman of the local chapter and Miss Frances Patrick is secretary.

Two Rescued From Overtaken Boat

Ashland, Wis., Aug. 11.—(AP)—Two men who clung desperately to an overturned boat in Lake Superior for nine hours were brought here today by the steamer Arcturus of the interlake fleet, which picked them up last night 10 miles out of Duluth Harbor.

The pair, G. M. Byer, of Chicago, and Guy Lamb, Muncie, Ind., both about 40, were exhausted and almost paralyzed from cold when hauled aboard, members of the rescuing crew said.

When revived, they told of setting out from a trailer camp at West Duluth in an open boat about noon yesterday. Their outboard motor failed and then the boat overturned in high waves. They drifted far out in the steamer lanes, where they tried vainly to signal passing boats, they said, until the Arcturus spotted them last night.

Death Intervened

Hollywood, Aug. 11.—(AP)—Warner Oland, filmland's "Charlie Chan," bequeathed most of his estimated $50,000 estate to his estranged wife, his attorneys disclosed today.

In a will made in May, 1937, two months after his separation from Mrs. Edith Shearn Oland, the actor named her as his chief beneficiary.

The fact he never changed it substantiated recent reports the Olands, married for 20 years, were on the verge of a reconciliation.

Mrs. Oland was preparing to rush to her husband's bedside when pneumonia ended his life in Sweden Saturday. They had no children.

She will leave for New York Sunday to sail for Stockholm, where Oland's body will lie in state until her arrival for the funeral services.

TVA ATTORNEY
AGREES FRAUD
ATTEMPT MADE

Knoxville, Tenn., Aug. 11.—(AP)—Alvin Ziegler, TVA attorney, testified today he agreed with Dr. Arthur E. Morgan, ousted TVA chairman, there had been an "attempt to defraud the government" in the Berry marble case.

Rep. James Mead (D-N.Y.), vice chairman of the congressional committee investigating the TVA, read the section of the resolution which empowered the committee to determine:

"Whether the charges made by Chairman Arthur E. Morgan that an attempt to defraud the government of the United States has been made in connection with the purchase of certain lands are true."

Mead asked Ziegler if he agreed with Dr. Morgan that fraudulent intent applied to the purchase of mineral and marble leases in the Norris dam area by Senator George L. Berry (D-Tenn.) and his associates.

"I agree there was an attempt to defraud the government," Ziegler replied.

New Bridge Across
Mississippi Talked

St. Louis, Aug. 11.—(AP)—A new Mississippi bridge, linking Illinois and Missouri and to be known as the "Lindbergh Bridge," has been proposed.

Delegations from Dupu, Waterloo, Columbia and other cities in Monroe county, Ill., met with St. Louis and St. Louis county representatives here last night to further plans for the bridge. The new span, to cost an estimated $5,000,000, would be built near Jefferson Barracks on the Missouri side and connect Lindbergh Boulevard in St. Louis with the Illinois highway system.

Carl Baer of the River Engineering Service of St. Louis, who was elected president, said Mayor A. C. Metter of Columbia, Ill., and himself would present a formal application for a WPA grant within 10 days to the St. Louis county court. Approval of the court is necessary before direct application can be made to WPA authorities.

The remainder of the funds necessary for the bridge would be raised by a bond issue.

Early Morning Rainstorms Reached
Near - Cloudburst Intensity in East

By The Associated Press

Early morning rainstorms which reached near-cloudburst proportions in New York state poured over many sections of the northeast and middle Atlantic today endangering shipping on Lake Erie and causing considerable damage to property and crops.

Twenty-five persons in six boats, who had been missing on storm-lashed Lake Erie, were rescued or made their way to safety.

Two fishermen were rescued and a third was missing after their motorboat sank off Sandy Hook, N. J.

Lightning struck the Union station in Washington, D. C., splintered a flagpole on the United States treasury building and started a fire in the wiring of the department of agriculture building. The storm brought temporary respite from 90-degree heat in the Capital.

The downpour measured 4.27 inches at Cortland, N. Y., and 3.35 inches at Rochester.

New York City was hit by the tail of the storm, which caused postponement of the Armstrong-

DWYER CHARGES
CARROLL WITH
EXTORTION TRYSays He Wrote Letters at Behest of Former Sheriff

South Paris, Me., Aug. 11.—(AP)—Paul N. Dwyer, 19-year-old "lifer" and principal accuser of Francis M. Carroll, former deputy sheriff on trial for the murder of Dr. James G. Littlefield, elderly country physician, also charged Carroll with attempted extortion.

This was revealed today by Attorney General Franz U. Burkett, called as a defense witness, who also injected into the case the case the shadowy figure of a "G-man."

Burkett testified he was present in the state prison when Dwyer was questioned at length by Charles Pelletier, who showed "his credentials as a G-man." He declined to discuss the conversation with Dwyer, asserting Pelletier had "imposed a seal of silence," but produced what he said was a copy of the youth's statement.

The statement, read in court without objection, quoted Dwyer as saying he wrote extortion letters at Carroll's behest to a "Mr. Morton."

Dwyer, as the state's star witness, accused Carroll of strangling not only the physician but also his wife. The bodies of both were found in an automobile with the youth when he was arrested at North Arlington, N. J., last autumn.

Dwyer's statement to Pelletier related that while Dwyer was keeping company with Carroll's daughter, Barbara, 18, in 1936, the defendant asked him to obtain a typewriter on which Dwyer wrote two letters at Carroll's behest.

One letter, Dwyer was quoted as telling the officers, requested George Morton of the Paris Manufacturing company to pay a "fee" and threatened reprisals if it were not paid. It was to Morton, Carroll testified yesterday, that Dwyer had written extortion notes.

$50,000 Demanded

In another letter, which Dwyer said was directed by Carroll, $50,000 was demanded, but a subsequent letter reduced the amount to $25,000.

Yesterday, Carroll testifying in his own defense, said Dwyer had held a grudge against him since 1936 when the former deputy sheriff learned Dwyer had tried to extort money from a South Paris manufacturer.

Called to the stand, Morton, elderly president of the manufacturing firm, testified that early in December, 1936, he received a letter demanding $50,000 which threatened his life.

GERMAN PLANE
NEARS END OF
NON-STOP JUMP

Boston, Aug. 11.—(AP)—Nearing the end of her projected non-stop flight from Berlin to New York, the German airplane Brandenburg reported her position to the Radio Marine Corp. at 12 o'clock noon, C. S. T., today as 30 miles north-east of Boston.

This position meant the plane had covered 3,700 miles of the 3,942 mile air distance from Berlin to New York.

The plane was not sighted along the New England coast because of low-hanging clouds. The Brandenburg reported she was flying at a height of 2,000 feet.

Her last reported speed was about 135 miles an hour. If maintained, this would bring her from New York about 1:30 P. M., C. S. T.

Berlin, Aug. 11.—(AP)—Germany's huge Focke-Wulf land plane took off for a non-stop flight to New York at 7:53 P. M. last night (12:53 P. M. Wednesday C. S. T.), it was ascertained from an official source today.

The flight is designed to demonstrate Germany is ready any day to start daily mail and passenger service across the Atlantic.

It was said the Luftthansa line, alarmed by publicity given the impending flight, decided to send the four-motored, low-winged plane on its ocean crossing a day ahead of the original schedule.

STEEL COMPANY
CONTESTS RIGHT OF WAGNER ACTHearing Held Today Before the Labor Relations Board

Washington, Aug. 11.—(AP)—The Republic Steel corporation challenged the constitutionality of the Wagner Labor Relations act today at a hearing before the Labor Relations Board.

Luther Day, counsel for the corporation, contended that under the workings of the act, his company had been denied due process of law, specifically that the board failed to afford an opportunity to argue one of its proposed orders. The order dealt with charges of discrimination against men who participated in the 1937 "Little Steel" strike.

In response to questions from Chairman Madden, Day conceded that the company had been given an opportunity to present testimony before a trial examiner. He contended, however, that the board gave the firm no further opportunity to contest whatever decision might be made.

Previous Decision

Following the examiner's hearing, the board issued a decision April 8 holding that the corporation had violated the act through its "domination" of company unions at its five Ohio plants. It ordered Republic to cease interfering with the self-organization of its employees, to disband the company unions and reinstate some 5,000 strikers with back pay.

After the Supreme Court decision in Kansas City stockyards case, indirectly affecting the board's procedure, decisions in the Republic Steel and other cases were withdrawn. Subsequently, the board issued in place of the Republic Steel order "proposed findings of fact" which officials said were largely identical with the original order. The corporation was permitted to file exceptions to the proposals and oral argument was heard today on those exceptions.

REPUBLIC STEEL
DEMANDS PROBE
OF CIO ACTIONSChairman Urges Senate
Investigation of "Intimidation"

Washington, Aug. 11.—(AP)—Tom Girdler, chairman of the board of the Republic Steel corporation, demanded today a senate investigation of "violence and intimidation" by the C. I. O. in last summer's "little steel" strike.

Criticizing the senate civil liberties committee investigation of the strike as being "one-sided," the blunt-spoken steel executive declared it would be only fair to subpoena C. I. O. records to show to what use the steel workers organization committee put a $1,500,000 fund.

Girdler, last of more than 300 witnesses examined in connection with the widespread 1937 strike, said in a prepared statement that he had heard "an unrecurrent rumor for months that because our company signed no contract with the C. I. O., the real purpose of the present session was to 'smear' Republic Steel corporation, crucify Tom Girdler and whitewash the C. I. O."

Girdler asked Chairman LaFollette (Prog-Wis) for permission to read his statement before being questioned by committee members. LaFollette denied the request, saying such permission had been refused other witnesses. The chairman added, however, Girdler could offer the statement later for introduction into the record.

Girdler said in his statement he was filing with the committee the record of 550 cases of "violence and intimidation by the C. I. O." Republic, he said, is "prepared to produce hundreds of witnesses to support these charges."

"In view of these facts," he said in a prepared statement read by the committee, "I respectfully insist that the committee investigate the violations of the civil rights and liberties of American citizens by the C. I. O."

Girdler vigorously defended his action in refusing to sign a contract with the S. W. O. O. last year. It was this action, coupled with similar refusal by other "little steel" companies, which brought on the 1937 strike.

He said Republic officials were convinced that: (1) A majority of their employees "did not want us to sign," (2) That such a contract was "the first step toward a closed shop and the check-off," and (3) That the C. I. O. was "not under responsible leadership and that communistic influences were dominating its activities."

"Because we took that stand and were able to maintain it," Girdler complained, "the name of Republic and the name of Tom Girdler have been held up before the country and before this committee as the embodiment of all that is wrong in the treatment of employees."

Washington, Aug. 11.—(AP)—A new "working agreement" for use of Canton and Enderbury islands indicated today the United States was willing to be a partner with Great Britain in developing trans-Pacific aviation.

The two countries settled their four-month dispute over ownership of the tiny mid-Pacific islands yesterday by a novel arrangement to use them jointly as aviation and communication bases.

They left details for future consideration, along with the question of ownership. Secretary Hull emphasized that there were no commitments on national defense.

Canton and Enderbury are prospective stepping stones on any airline between Canada or the United States and Australia and New Zealand.

AMBOY YOUTH'S
ARM TORN OFF
LAST EVENING

Lyle Anderson, 20, of Amboy, was in a critical condition at the Harris hospital at Mendota today, suffering from loss of blood and shock, the result of an automobile accident last night about 9:20 on U. S. route 52 just south of the village of Hinkel near the Lee-LaSalle county line. Anderson was driving a car belonging to Steve Myers, a Chicago contractor, who is working in Amboy, and had six passengers in the machine enroute to Mendota.

The sedan sideswiped a northbound truck belonging to Fred Sweet of Polo, which was loaded with peaches from southern Illinois. Anderson's left arm was torn off a few inches below the shoulder when the machines sideswiped. Joseph Lupton, Charles and James Gillan, Theodore Bock and Steve Myers, the other passengers, sustained cuts and bruises and the car was badly damaged. State Highway Officer Rex Flach of Amboy was summoned to the scene of the accident and removed Anderson and the other injured occupants to the Harris hospital at Mendota. The Gillan brothers and Bock of the others sustained the worst injuries.

American Campuses
in Hankow Bombed

Hankow, China, Aug. 11.—(AP)—Japanese air raiders killed an undetermined number of Chinese today on the campuses of the American Church (Episcopal) Mission's Boone University and St. Hilda's Girls' School at Wuchang.

Twenty-seven planes heavily bombed Hanyang and Wuchang, across the Yangtze river from Hankow, provisional Chinese capital, in the afternoon raid.

Preliminary estimates placed the total casualties in the two cities at more than 500 but it was feared the toll would be much higher as rescue squads dug desperately in the wrecks of buildings.

One bomb scored a direct hit on the Boy Scout building of Boone University where a number of Chinese civilians had taken refuge. Another missile exploded outside St. Hilda's, the concussion bowing in the walls.

JOHN SNAVELY, 5,
STANLEY HANSON,
7, ARE DROWNEDSlipped Into Deep Water
Off North Shore While Wading

Two small playmates, unaware of the depth and swiftness of the current in Rock river, just west of the Galena avenue bridge, were swept to their death yesterday afternoon, while a third companion looked on, and several onlookers were helpless to save the two boys from drowning. The victims were John Clayton Snavely, aged five, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Snavely, 115 Everett street, and Stanley Ansford Hanson, aged seven, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frieda A. Hanson, 229 Morgan street. Nine-year-old Donald Thomas, 622 Squires avenue, left the water and ran to the homes of the victims' parents to notify them of the tragedy.

The three boys were playing along the north river bank yesterday afternoon and shortly before 4 o'clock, were wading in the water along the north shore, west of the Galena avenue bridge. Donald Thomas related the tragic experience at two inquests conducted last evening by Dr. Kenyon B. Segner, coroner, giving a clear vision of the double drowning.

He said the boys were wading along the shore about midway between North Galena and North Hennepin avenue where row boats were moored. All three of the boys had fallen down and their clothing was wet, when one of the two victims suggested that they go swimming. John and Stanley walked out from the north bank a short distance and were suddenly aware from their feet by the current and into about 15 feet of water.

Alarm Was Spread

The Thomas lad ran to the Snavely home to notify the parents of the tragedy, then borrowed a bicycle and rode to the Hanson home. In the meantime, others along the river bank, some of whom had witnessed the double drowning, but were powerless to give assistance, spread a general alarm. The grappling hook equipment and the rescuer from the fire department headquarters were rushed to the scene and volunteers started dragging the river. Both bodies were recovered within an hour, and several physicians and volunteers in the art of artificial respiration worked tirelessly for some time, but their efforts were fruitless.

Cecil Eberle assisted by Lee Stauffer manned the boat which recovered the bodies of both boys. Howard Slothower and Rodney Cushing operated another boat equipped with drag hooks. The body of Stanley Hanson was removed to the Staples mortuary and the body of John Snavely to the Melvin funeral home, where inquests were conducted last evening. Verdicts of accidental drowning were returned by juries in both cases.

Stanley Ansford Hanson was born in Dixon, August 28, 1930. Surviving him are his parents and one brother Irving. Funeral services will be held at his parents' home at 2 P. M. Friday, the Rev. L. W. Walter officiating and with burial in Oakwood cemetery.

John Clayton Snavely was born October 5, 1932 in Des Moines, Iowa, and is survived by his parents, a brother Jack and a sister Susan. His funeral will be held at the Melvin funeral home at 9 A. M. tomorrow, the Rev. Lloyd W. Walter officiating, and the body will be taken to Omaha, Neb. for burial.

Public Asked to Heed Barricades

Max Sommers, superintendent in charge of operations at the Galena avenue bridge, today appealed to the public of Dixon to heed the barricades that have been erected around the south approach to the old structure. Three small children wandered out on the partially wrecked structure this morning and were removed by one of the workmen.

Sommers urged the public to remain outside the barriers for their own protection and safety and by so doing not to interfere with the operations and the workmen who are now engaged in razing the old steel structure. The appeal was not only addressed to children but to adults as well.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste.

Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning shows there may be something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

An excess of acids or poisons in your blood, when due to functional kidney disorders, may be the cause of nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

CAR WOOD ADDS HIS ADVICE TO CARE ON WATER

List of Don'ts Given to Americans Who En- joy Boating

By GAR WOOD

With the army of vacationists invading American rivers and lakes on boats swelling to well over a million and a half this year, I would like to add my bit of advice to that still greater army which looks longingly at the water, but stays on shore.

With boats and motors of all types cheaper, more mechanically reliable and generally safer than ever before, there is no sound reason why most anybody can't cut loose on the water for a good time without harmful results of any kind.

We, as a nation, are blessed with the finest set of waterways and lakes in the world. They should provide a playground for all of us, and they doubtless will as soon as we conquer that silly, unreasonable fear that attacks many of us as soon as we get close enough to the water to get our feet wet. As a matter of fact, you aren't in half as much danger when you set out in a small boat, as when you undertake to cross any one of a thousand street intersections in American cities or take a stroll down a highway.

No Longer Monopolized Sport

The days—when boating was a recreation monopolized by millionaires have long since passed. I will gamble that the gang that chips in on a small utility boat or the individual canoeist or outboard boatsman who points his bow up the long water highways that lead through our cool forests has a better summer of it than the fellow who sports the swankiest yacht.

Once the individual gets hold of himself and sizes up his timidity of water for what it is, he can sail forth without fear by simply following a set of the most primary "don'ts" that will keep him out of trouble. Here are some of them.

Don't fall in the water—and if you have fallen in, don't get panicky. It isn't any easier, but it is just as easy to fall into the water from a boat as it is to fall down the back steps. Once in the water, don't thrash around like a chicken, but take hold of the boat and hang on lightly until you are pulled out or towed ashore. Boats don't sink. They will keep you afloat if you simply hold on gently.

Don't go adventuring alone in a boat of any kind, if you have never been in one before. First take a cruise with a sailor who knows the ropes. He can give you a lot of helpful hints.

Don't jump into a boat. Step in. If you leap you may stumble and do a nose dive into the river or lake. And have your arms empty when you board a small boat. Bundles obscure the view and make you awkward.

Don't try to swim to shore if your boat should be overturned in mid-lake or midstream. The boat was made with the purpose of floating and it will float itself and you, if you let it.

Don't pull a person out of the water over the side of your boat. It might overturn and dump yourself and other passengers. Pull the doused one aboard from the stern or tow him to shallow water.

Don't change boats or seats on the water in small craft. An unexpected wave may seat you in the lake.

Don't stand up in a small boat. Even when starting the motor, you may sit comfortably. If you are fishing, remember, you may join the it into the boat, unless you are firmly seated with your center of fish in the water instead of pulling gravity low in the boat.

Don't venture too far out in a rowboat. The gently breeze that helped you out, may be a gale to exhaust you when you are returning. Don't travel far out in an outboard unless you have extra fuel aboard.

Confesses to Killing Man Ten Years Ago

Peoria, Ill., Aug. 11—(AP)—Howard W. Jeppert, 33, was taken to Edwardsville's jail after he confessed, Chief of Detectives Fred Nussbaum said, the slaying of an unidentified man 10 years ago in a speakeasy on Horseshoe lake near that city.

Jeppert was taken into custody at his shack on the Illinois river outside East Peoria after Nussbaum had recovered an anonymous tip of his connection with the slaying.

Jeppert, according to Nussbaum, shot Noah J. Overtown after an argument over a violin on April 13, 1929. Nussbaum said Jeppert confessed shooting "The man behind the bar" after the latter had fired a shot at him.

Nussbaum said that Jeppert, who had used the alias of Stanley H. Irving since coming here shortly after the slaying, had spent some time in Quincy before coming to Peoria and that he had worked for the WPA there.

When arrested, Jeppert told officers, "I'm glad to get it off my mind. For ten years I've been afraid to look a cop in the eye. Maybe now I'll have some peace."

Recent Murder Is Painters Union's Sixth Since 1931

Chicago, Aug. 11—(AP)—The gang style assassination of James G. Dungan, business agent of the Painters and Decorators Union, was disclosed today as the sixth slaying within the organization since 1931.

Police so far have been unable to establish a motive for the murder of the 35-year-old union official. He was shot to death in front of his home Monday night by three gunmen.

Murder began to plague the painters union in 1931, when Frank Carr, financial secretary, was shot.

Three years later, Michael "Bubs" Quinlan was killed. A short time later Roy Thompson, business agent for the union, was killed.

Mrs. Elsie Henneman was killed by a shotgun charge while riding with her husband, George, secretary-treasurer of the local. Robert A. Shields, financial secretary of the union, was killed on June 25, 1937.

"TALL STORIES"—No. 3

"... exhausted from my long battle in shark-infested seas I lay, half swooning on the yacht's deck. Gratefully the owner bent over me and grasped my hand. 'Brave fellow,' he cried, 'you have saved my daughter's life—the one in all the world I love best. Name your reward! My yacht, my daughter's hand, my fortune.' He hesitated—then gravely added—'Yes, even my last bottle of Blatz Old Heidelberg beer is yours.' Sorry as I was for the old millionaire, I was not to be tempted. Spurning his offer of daughter, yacht and gold, I took his greatest treasure—his Blatz Old Heidelberg—and lived happily ever after."

BOMBING MARKS CIO DISPUTE IN DETROIT TODAY

Detroit, Aug. 11—(AP)—A police guard was posted today at the home of Richard T. Frankenstein, one of the deposed vice presidents of the United Auto Workers of America, following the bombing late last night of a garage at the rear of his residence.

No one was hurt and the damage was slight.

Frankenstein said his only enemies were "persons on the other side in this U. A. W. factional dispute." He added:

"If they want to intimidate us they will have to go a lot further."

Police indicated they feared an outbreak of factional violence might develop, but a spokesman for President Homer Martin of the U. A. W. said the incident was "too unimportant" to warrant comment.

In the house were Mr. and Mrs. Frankenstein, their three children; Maurice Sugar, attorney for Frankenstein and the other recently ousted international officers; Henry Kraus, former publicity chief of the U. A. W. A. and Mrs. Kraus.

Sugar claimed his life had been threatened during the union trials. He said he was "taking precautions."

The pattern of the skin on a bird's leg is a valuable aid to scientists in linking up the various bird families. Related families have similar designs.

Effort to Settle Labor Trouble at Ottawa is Failure

Ottawa, Ill., Aug. 11—(AP)—First efforts to effect a settlement of the labor dispute at the Libbey-Owens-Ford Company plant failed at a conference last night when representatives of the Federation of Flat Glass Workers, a C. I. O. affiliate, rejected a company proposal.

The company offered to permit the return to work of 550 men who remained away as C. I. O. pickets marched around the plant in protest against employment of four men described by Leland Beard, union president, as "agitators and trouble-makers."

"We just can't see these four going back to work again," Beard said after turning down the proposal. "We demand that the four be furloughed indefinitely. We're keeping out only four, but they're keeping 550 out of work."

Although the C. I. O. affiliate has a contract with the company, it does not provide a closed shop. An attempt to charter an A. F. of L. union at the plant precipitated the present labor trouble.

Eight countries use the dollar as a monetary unit: United States, Canada, British Honduras, Colombia, Newfoundland, Liberia, San Domingo and the Straits Settlements.

The secretary bird is so called because its crest suggests a bunch of pens stuck behind the ear.

They Still String Along Together

Denying reports of a rift in their friendship, Don Budge, brick-topped tennis flash No. 1, and his doubles partner, Gene Maiko, returned to New York after sweeping Europe clean of its tennis titles. On his conquering trip, Don added the All-England, French and Australian amateur titles to the American title he already held, making him the only one to ever wear all these crowns at one time.

Baseball Catching
Stunt in Cleveland

St. Louis, Aug. 11—(AP)—Gabby Street, manager of the St. Louis Browns American League baseball club, said today he was uncertain whether he would be able to referee a contest in Cleveland Aug. 20 when Chicago White Sox and Indian players will attempt to catch balls dropped from the top of the Terminal Tower in Cleveland's public square.

Thirty years ago, while a catcher for the Washington Senators, Street caught a ball dropped from the top of the 555-foot Washington monument. The height of the terminal tower is 708 feet.

Street said the Browns have five games scheduled in three days in Detroit beginning August 19, which probably will prevent his being in Cleveland.

The value of a working elephant has dropped from $7000 to around $150.

Settlement of Jap-
Russian Vest-Pocket War Seems Near

Moscow, Aug. 11—(AP)—The vest-pocket war on the Siberian frontier which threatened to involve Russia and Japan in a major conflict, appeared well on the way to peaceful settlement today.

Both sides agreed to a truce after a peace parley between the Soviet Russian Foreign Minister, Maxim Litvinoff, and the Japanese Ambassador, Mamoru Shigemitsu, and to order their forces to cease military operations at noon today Changkufeng time (9 P. M. Wednesday CST.)

Not all points of the dispute over the frontier position about Changkufeng Hill, center of trouble since July 11, were cleared up by the agreement—the basis for re-fencing the border remained a thorny problem which could start new quarrels.

A communique announced Japan and Russia had decided that their respective troops would remain in positions they held at midnight August 10.

Mediate Railroad Labor Stalemate

Chicago, Aug. 11—(AP)—The controversy between railroad management and labor over a proposed 15 per cent wage cut entered the mediation stage today.

In an effort to break the deadlock, the three-man national mediation board arranged conferences with the carriers' joint conference committee, the Brotherhood of Trainmen and the Railway Labor Executives' Association.

Intervention by the board followed more than a month of fruitless negotiations between representatives of the carriers and labor.

The roads insisted they couldn't continue operations under current wage scales. Labor stood pat on its demand for a "living wage."

Nearly 100 Guests Received at Tea at Richardson Party

A gay household these days is that of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Richardson of 624 North Ottawa, with their son, Capt. W. L. Richardson, and his family at home after a two-year stay in the Philippine Islands. Yesterday, the senior Mrs. Richardson and her daughter, Miss Alice, received nearly 100 guests at tea between 3 and 6 P. M. in compliment to their daughter-in-law and sister-in-law.

Assisting in receiving with the hostesses and honoree were the W. L. Richardsons' little daughters, Patsy, 11, and Janet, seven.

Mixed garden flowers were artistically arranged in a low Italian pottery bowl on the lace-covered refreshment table, and ivory tapers in pottery holders gleamed brightly over the scene. Mrs. Charles K. Willett and Mrs. Geo. Z. Banta presided over the serving.

The Richardsons will remain in Dixon for some time yet, before leaving for Ft. Leavenworth, Kan., where Captain Richardson will enter the general command and staff school for a year of special study.

Betrothal of Miss Alice Myers to Leo Lewis is Announced

Coming as a surprise announcement at an informal dinner party given last evening by Mrs. Maurice E. Potter, was news of the betrothal and approaching marriage of Miss Alice Carolyn Myers of this city to Leo Frederic Lewis of Oregon.

Leo's Glea Rutherford was first to discover the evening's secret, when she unfolded her dinner napkin and read: "Alice and Leo—real soon." Pink tapers in crystal holders shone down on an angel food wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom, in the center of the table.

Following the dinner, cards were suggested for the remainder of the evening.

Miss Myers is the second daughter of Mrs. R. R. Myers of North Galena. She was graduated from Dixon high school in 1933 and the Copius business college in 1934. Since then, she has been employed as bookkeeper at Potter's Cleaning and Dyeing company.

Gov. Horner Flies to Camp This Morn

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 11.—(AP)—Governor Horner left today by plane for Camp Grant to participate in Governor's Day ceremonies at the National Guard encampment.

The National Guard plane, piloted by Maj. C. A. McElvain, left the Springfield municipal airport at 9 A. M. (CST).

Earlier the governor started on their way 25 planes participating in the first annual air tour of Illinois cities to advertise the state fair opening Saturday. On a 900-mile flight, the air squadron was scheduled to make its first stop at Danville, with Joliet, Rockford and Moline also on the day's itinerary.

Chicago, Aug. 11.—(AP)—Three gunmen walked into a North Clark street pawn shop, opposite the county building, during the evening rush hour yesterday, scooped up cash and jewelry and escaped in a waiting automobile.

Lloyd J. Butler, owner of the Prudential Loan Association, estimated the loot at $10,000.

Two of the men were masked and a third wore smoked glasses. While they were going through trays of diamonds and picking out the largest stones, a woman customer walked in.

"This is a robbery, lady," one of the men said. "Get inside there and be quiet. Nobody will harm you."

She was led to an office where two clerks were being guarded.

After taking several hundred dollars from the cash register, the robbers ran to a waiting automobile, driven by a fourth companion, and escaped in the homeward-bound rush hour crowd.

Chicago, Aug. 11.—(AP)—Samuel Insull's will disclosed today he was worth about $1,000 when he died June 16 in Paris.

The man who built a $4,000,000, 000 house of power and once had a fortune estimated at $100,000,000 left his estate to the widow, Margaret.

The will was filed in Probate court. Attorney Floyd E. Thompson, for years counsel for the de-throned utilities czar, said the document definitely scotched rumors that Insull had a hidden fortune.

The will, filed by Attorney Karl Gibbon, was dated June 14, 1932. It named as executor Insull's son, Samuel Jr., now assistant to the chairman of the board of the Commonwealth Edison Company.

An accompanying application by Insull Jr. for letters testamentary asserted his father had turned over property worth about $2,000,000 for the benefit of creditors whose claims approximated $16,000,000.

Attorneys said also that insurance Insull carried when he ruled a utilities empire had long ago been converted for the benefit of creditors.

Chicago, Aug. 11.—(AP)—Littigants awaited a ruling of Circuit Judge D. P. Rumsey, expected late today, which may decide whether A. O. Ledbetter or Lee Calhoun is Williamson county treasurer — a dispute which has raged for several weeks.

Three banks which hold some $60,000 in county funds asked the ruling. Attorneys for Ledbetter, ousted by the county board of commissioners, asked that a jury decide the issue. In a counter claim, they also asked that Calhoun be removed as a usurper.

The county's attorneys asserted Ledbetter had been removed legally and Calhoun appointed by the board and commissioned by the governor to replace Ledbetter. Assistant State's Attorney J. H. Clayton asked that the court take over the funds, and turn them over to Calhoun to satisfy county debts.

The board ordered Ledbetter removed recently, asserting he had paid out funds on invalid blind pension warrants. Ledbetter refused to recognize the ouster and changed the door locks. However, Sheriff Zollie Carter and deputies forced entrance, barred Ledbetter, and opened the safe with a blow torch, only to find that nearly all the county's money was in the three banks.

MRS. CAIWAY'S VICTORY BOOSTS HOPES FOR WOMEN

Washington, Aug. 11—(AP)—Senator Hattie Caiway's victory in the Arkansas primary encouraged other women today in their campaigns for political positions long monopolized by men.

Her renomination had been fought unsuccessfully by Rep. John L. McClelland, who said serving the senate is "a man's job."

The senior Arkansas senator, only woman ever elected to that office by popular vote, always has contended senator should serve, not as men or women, but as citizens.

A similar viewpoint has been expressed by her female colleagues in the house of representatives, all of whom are seeking reelection. The women lawmakers say they serve the districts with the same efficiency that would be shown by men of similar qualifications.

Rep. Non Honeyman of Oregon and Rep. Virginia E. Jenckes of Indiana, both Republicans, already have been renominated. Three other congresswomen seeking renomination are Rep. Mary E. Norton (D-N.J.), who steered the wage-hour bill through the house; Rep. Caroline O'Day (D-N.Y.) and Rep. Edith Nourse Rogers (R-Mass.).

Two other women already have won places on the November congressional ballots. Mrs. Ruth Hollingshead defeated two male opponents for a Democratic nomination in Iowa, and Mrs. Elsie Stanton of Wellston, Ohio, won in the Democratic primary for Ohio's tenth district Tuesday.

Brain Twizzlers

By
PROF. J. D. FLINT

Two hunters went fox-hunting and spent an exciting but rather unprofitable day, at least it was unprofitable as far as the number of foxes bagged was concerned. They got only one.

On their way back the hunters came across a saw-horse and a plank near an old shack. They placed the plank across the saw-horse in teeter-totter fashion and one of them got on one end, the other on the other end and they adjusted it until they balanced. Then they switched ends and the lighter of the two carried the fox. This way they still balanced. If the lighter man weighed one hundred and fifty pounds and the heavier man weighed one hundred and eighty pounds, how much did the fox weigh? If your memory gives you the answer to a problem somewhat similar don't let it fool you because this one is different.

Answer to Yesterday's Twizzler.

SENATOR AVOWS HE IS NOT BACK OF BIG BUSINESS

George Describes the Charges as Being Slanderous

Atlanta, Aug. 11.—(AP)—Senator Walter F. George described as "slanderous or ignorant misrepresentations" the charges of campaign opponents that he represented big business in the senate, in a radio address yesterday.

On the eve of President Roosevelt's politically significant appearance at Barnstable, George referred also to his support of vocational education and veterans' legislation disapproved at the White House, as evidence "I was not fighting for big business."

"Let me tell you my friends," the senator said, "that when any man asking for the highest office within the gift of the people of this state—when any man is unwilling or afraid to do justice to big business, middle-sized business or little business, that man will sell you down the creek whenever it is politically possible for him to do it."

For Every Business

"I know that when I voted for vocational education for our farm boys and girls, even against the threat of a presidential veto, that I was not fighting for big business."

"I know that when I was fighting for the soldiers of the World War I I know that I was not fighting for big business. Yet six times have I taken the floor in the senate to override a presidential veto of bills that had been passed for the benefits of our veterans, or for their widows or orphans."

"I know," he continued, "that when I advocated bank deposit insurance, banking reform, mobilization of the gold reserve, control of the stock and commodity exchanges, that I was not fighting for big business."

"I was fighting then—intelligently, I hope—for every small business man in this nation. But I am not afraid to represent every legitimate business in this state."

Third of Alleged Jewel Thieves Held

Benton, Ill., Aug. 11.—(AP)—Robert Mundy, 25, who gave his address as Bedford, Ind., arrested Monday in St. Joseph, Mo., was jailed here today in connection with the robbery of the Neu jewelry store at Zeigler, Ill., on June 3.

Edward Page and Mrs. Daisy Allen, 20, also of Bedford, are held here in connection with the case. State's Attorney Rea Jones said Page confessed and named Mundy and Mrs. Allen. The robbers obtained $75 in the robbery, holding up and disarming night policeman John Foster as they escaped.

BOTH SIDES IN SINO-JAPS' WAR CLAIM SUCCESS

Shanghai, Aug. 11.—(AP)—Chinese and Japanese fought sharply southwest of Kiukiang today as the invaders sought to renew their push toward Hankow, provisional Chinese capital.

One Japanese force thrust westward from Kiukiang, Japanese advance base 135 miles down the Yangtze river from Hankow, after claiming occupation of Shaochen and a close approach to Huanglaomen, 10 miles south of Kiukiang.

Five hundred shells from Japanese artillery were said to have destroyed Chinese defenses in the region and wiped out two companies of Chinese troops.

Chinese reports, however, said the invaders' success was short-lived because other Chinese units counter-attacked, killed 300 Japanese and forced surviving invaders to withdraw.

On the north bank of the Yangtze, the Chinese declared reverses caused the Japanese to bring up 20,000 reinforcements.

Japanese warplanes heavily bombed industrial and waterfront areas of Hankow and dropped explosives in every section of Wu-chang, across the Yangtze river from Hankow.

Fires were started which burned rapidly and a large lot of casualties was considered likely.

Chinese dispatches said one Japanese warship was sunk and another damaged by Chinese shore batteries above Kiukiang.

LYONS SAYS WPA IS "ROTTENEST" OF GOVT. DEALS

Belleville, Ill., Aug. 11.—(AP)—Richard J. Lyons, Republican nominee for United States Senator, charged here last night that the WPA had deteriorated into "the most rotten political machine in American history."

Lyons said in 1932, when the Republican party went out of power, there were 8,000,000 unemployed. He said now 11,500,000 are unemployed, 3,500,000 are part-time workers, while 20,000,000 others are dependent upon the government, despite the 22 billions spent by the New Deal to justify its theory.

"Industry has been stagnated," he asserted, "while consumers' taxes go higher, higher and higher. Franklin D. Roosevelt is the invisible tax collector. He is present at every meal in every family, getting more than his share from the mouths of hungry children."

"If Harry Hopkins, Aubrey Williams and the rest of the crack pots in Washington continue to manage the WPA," Lyons continued, "the labor movement in the United States will be destroyed before five years have passed."

Lyons charged that two billion dollars had been diverted from the social security funds to pay the payrollers.

Malone Transferred to Medical Center

Chicago, Aug. 11.—(AP)—William H. Malone, former chairman of the Illinois Tax Commission, was under treatment today at the medical center for federal prisoners at Springfield, Mo.

His wife, living in suburban Park Ridge, was notified yesterday of his transfer from the penitentiary at Lewisburg, Pa., where he was sent three months ago to serve a two-year sentence for income tax evasion.

Malone contended during his long appeal battle that an abdominal ailment had made him physically unfit to withstand imprisonment.

DETROIT'S AUTO START WORK ON NEW MODEL CARS

Detroit, Aug. 11.—(AP)—Industrial Detroit, so often the nation's economic barometer, moved at quicker tempo today as automotive plants prepared for production of 1939 models.

Thousands of men were called back to work and 1260 families were withdrawn from the welfare rolls in the last two days.

First plants to feel the upsurge particularly were the parts and accessory makers.

United States Rubber Co. executives said telegrams had been sent to more than 700 workmen calling them back to their jobs.

An executive of General Motors Corporation said its parts plants had started production for 1939 assemblies and that all units in the Detroit area would be in operation by the middle of September.

Ford Motor Co. resumed steel production.

At nearby Toledo, David R. Wilson, president of Willys-Overland Motors, announced that 1,000 men would be recalled by Aug. 15 for assembly line operations by Aug. 22.

Other automotive plants reported advancing to a more ambitious schedule were Packard Motor Co.; Plymouth Motor Corp.; Mopar Products Corp.; Fisher Body Co.; vision of General Motors; Mopar Corp.; Chrysler Corp.; Kellogg Hayes Wheel Co.; Holley Carburetor Co.; National Automotive Fibers, Inc.; DeSoto Motor Corp. and Detroit Corp.

FARM OFFICIALS DON'T WANT VOTE ON CORN QUOTAS

Wallace Takes Advantage of Provision in Law to Postpone Poll

Washington, Aug. 11.—(AP)—A corn belt popularity test of the new crop control law has been deferred at least until next year.

Secretary Wallace announced late yesterday a referendum on corn marketing quotas was made unnecessary by the official August crop report, which estimated the corn yield at 2,566,221,000 bushels. That amount, coupled with a 320,000,000-bushel carryover from 1937, fell 27,000,000 bushels short of the "excessive supply" level which would require a vote.

If the August forecast is followed by a comparable report on production in November, federal loans on corn will be mandatory. The indicated rate is 57 cents a bushel, or seven cents higher than last year.

Under marketing quotas, requiring approval of two-thirds of the farmers voting, farmers in the commercial corn belt would have had to store a percentage of their corn or pay a penalty of 15 cents a bushel on all corn sold or fed to livestock in excess of individual quotas.

Don't Want Vote

Such quota restrictions won overwhelming approval by southern cotton and tobacco farmers last spring. Federal farm officials had said frankly, however, they did not wish to have such a referendum in the midwest.

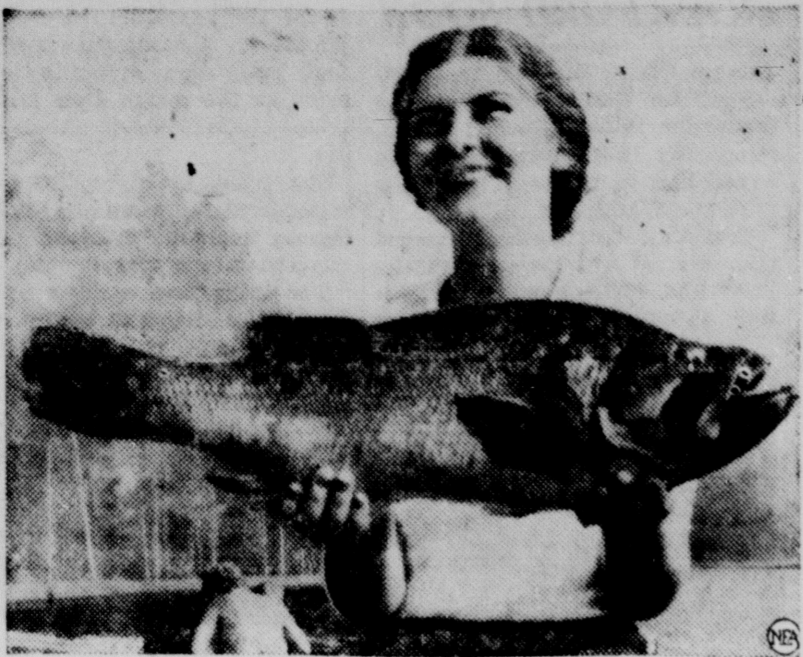

Wallace estimated the marketing quota level at 2,913,000,000 bushels yesterday, although in the spring it was placed at 2,773,000,000 bushels. Officials explained a farm law provision for "adjustment for trends in demand" made it possible to revise the figure by 140,000,000 bushels.

Wallace estimated normal domestic needs at 2,405,000,000 bushels annually compared with 2,345,000,000 for the 1928-37 average, and exports at 70,000,000 bushels compared with 9,000,000 bushels for the ten-year average. He predicted exports for the year ending September 3 would total 120,000,000 bushels.

He said the department's corn acreage program, under which corn farmers were asked to reduce operations from 18 to 20 percent, was the major factor in averting a surplus, and pointed out that the corn acreage was 9,768,000 less than in 1937.

Woman Picks Eight Straight Winners

Chicago, Aug. 11.—(AP)—Turf experts said it couldn't be done, but Miss June Marks of Kenosha, Wis., had a $3,000 check today to show that an amateur handicapper could pick seven consecutive winners.

Miss Marks won the daily handicapper contest at Washington park yesterday by picking the winners in the first seven races. The $1,000 daily prize had tripled through carry-overs of previous awards this week.

Miss Marks not only picked the first seven races as required for the contest, but added the eighth. She played all her choices which paid a total of $96.60 for eight $2 straight bets. But that wasn't all. Miss Marks also played her daily double selection and won $68.80 for a profitable $3,165.40 day at the races.

SPAIN'S REBELS BITING AT RICH MINING SECTOR

Henaye, France (at the Spanish frontier), Aug. 11.—(AP)—A two-pronged insurgent attack bit today at the Almaden mining country in southwestern Spain, one of the Spanish government's wealthiest areas and the world's richest mercury-yielding regions.

One column driving northeast reported it captured Almorchon, giving insurgents control of a railroad from Almaden 42 miles west to Castuera and a branch line from Almorchon south toward Belmez in Cordoba.

Another column operating farther north along the Guadiana river valley said it made a seven-mile advance in 12 hours and captured six small towns.

Conflicting reports obscured the progress of battle in eastern Spain along the Ebro and Segre rivers, where insurgents said they were cleaning up rapidly the gains made in a government offensive the past two weeks.

Meanwhile, insurgent bulletins said insurgent Generalissimo Francisco Franco was beginning to put pressure on the Gandesa pocket, about 50 miles to the south, by attacking south from Fayon.

Insurgents said they advanced 10 miles along the 25-mile front southwest of Almaden, 65 miles north of Cordoba in the Estremadura region, winning crops and cattle and gaining defense advantages west and south of Almaden in the rugged Tiro mountains.

Plowboys Crawling Up in 3-I League

Chicago, Aug. 11.—(AP)—Moline's Plows, champions of the Three-Eye League in 1937, were only a game out of the second division today.

The Plows, after fumbling around in the second division, added another game to their recent winning spurt last night by beating Bloomington, 11 to 3, with a splurge of 15 hits.

As Waterloo's game with Springfield was postponed because of a barbecue at the Browns park, the Plows gained half a game on the Hawks.

Evansville got off to a big lead in the first inning and trampled over Clinton, 10 to 5. Although the Bees' attack was revived after recent weak showings, Bob Coleman's club had to use three pitchers.

Decatur won handily from Cedar Rapids, 7 to 3.

The same teams were scheduled to meet today.

THE CLOUDED MOON

By MAX SALTmarsh

THE CHARACTERS

Hugo Stern, handsome author, living on the French Riviera.
 Archie Lumsden, myself, Hugo's friend.
 Rene Geiss, singularly unpleasant but famous cartoonist.
 Yesterday: Summoned to Palm Beach by O'Donnell, an American detective. Hugo and I see E. Monet murdered while she is taking part in a mannequin show.

Chapter Four A Rotten Business

It was extraordinary how quickly the flawless organization of the place asserted itself at the voice of authority. In a flash, it seemed, there was a cordon of waiters holding back the jostling crowd. Two hefty fellows picked up the limp body in the spangled dress while others made a passage for us through the crowd. The manager himself led the way, pausing occasionally to reassure some distinguished patron. "It is nothing," I heard him say to one excited old gentleman. "The poor girl had a sudden heart-attack and fell from the gangway. We hope it is not serious, but we cannot tell until the doctor has made his examination. In the meantime, may I beg Monsieur to use his distinguished influence to calm the other guests?"

Half a dozen times during our exit did he pause to spread oil on the still painfully troubled waters, and each time there was an unmistakable lessening of the ferment. Only when we halted in the empty corridor outside did he relax his benevolent calm. He stood aside to let the sinister little cortege pass him, waving us down a smaller corridor. "To my private office, gentlemen," he said sharply. "You will have the goodness to wait in the anteroom while Monsieur le Docteur makes his examination."

I held back a moment and looked round me. The door through which we had passed was guarded by two impassive liveried flunkies. Outside the baccarat room stood a couple of croupiers, saturnine and expressionless. Across the entrance three vast statues, it was abundantly clear that from now on no one could enter or leave the building without permission.

The next minute he had motioned us on, into a small, dignified, discreetly lighted room, and Hugo and I were left alone.

I sat down abruptly on the nearest chair. I had seen a number of men come to violent and painful ends in a variety of places, but I had never before seen a woman die. I was suddenly conscious of a sick feeling in the pit of my stomach, and my knees were giving beneath me. "Well," I said to Hugo, "what do you make of it?"

"No True Blonde"

He dropped into a chair opposite me, reached for a decanter and

"What's the verdict on the girl?" asked Hugo.
 The little man hesitated, looked glasses on a near-by table and poured out a couple of drinks. "Get outside of that," he said. "You're looking green, my son. It's a rotten business, but we're not responsible." "But that's just it," I said. "I feel that, I, a way, I am. That girl was only a child. She was damnably frightened and she came to us for help. And what did we do?" "Nothing!" he retorted, sharply but not unkindly. "And what could we have done? Nothing again! Get a grip on yourself Archie. You look too much like the murderer yourself for my liking, and the police'll be here any minute."

"Then you believe she was murdered?" I caught him up. "Of course," said he irritably. "But they'll bring it in an accident or, failing that, suicide, if they've got the ghost of an excuse. They don't want the publicity just when this place is stealing half the thunder from Monte Carlo."

"Well," I said obstinately, "if they try that game, I'll give them a run for their money. I'm not going to have that poor little soul murdered in cold blood under my nose without making sure that the responsible swings for it."

"Loses his head, old lad," he corrected me, with the ghost of a grin. "We're in France, remember. And for the love of Mike, Archie, keep your mouth shut as far as you can and your temper under control. We're foreigners over here."

He broke off sharply, for the inner door had opened, and the little doctor came out. "Hello, Ricketts," said he amiably, "who'd have thought of seeing you here?"

The doctor stopped short, spun round like a top, gave a startled exclamation, and, dashing at Hugo, kissed him fervently on both cheeks. "C'est toi!" he cried ecstatically. "Mon Hugo! How is it that I did not know thee before?"

"Well," said Hugo, disengaging himself from the clinch, "I had to take a couple of looks myself before I was sure. Archie"—he turned to me—"this is a very distinguished person—no less than Monsieur le Docteur Riquet, champion-scrummer extraordinary. Ricketts, this is my friend Archie Lumsden."

The little doctor halted in the act of another assault upon Hugo's cheeks and gave me an uncommonly shrewd and searching look. Satisfied apparently, he advanced and solemnly offered me his hand. "Any friend to my dear Hugo is a friend to me," he assured me. "I am only sad that I meet you on to tragic an occasion. We must reconnoiter ourselves later at my hotel and see if the Poi Roger is so good as it then was. It is but this morning that I arrived in Cannes, and I have not yet discovered."

"What's the verdict on the girl?" asked Hugo.
 The little man hesitated, looked this way and that, and spoke finally in a lowered voice. "She was shot," he said, "by a bullet at close range. From the size of the wound, it would be a small automatic. Further than that—" He spread out his hands. "Nothing, except that like so many modern women, no true blonde. The hair was dyed."

I looked at Hugo, thinking of Geiss's queer superstition about dark women, but even as I opened my mouth to speak, the door opened and a small and solemn procession entered the room. First came a large individual in a frock coat, with a purple rosette in the buttonhole, whose round and chubby face seemed unnaturally compressed into an expression of official solemnity. At his heels trotted a scrubby little fellow carrying a small black Gladstone bag, and followed him came a uniformedgendarme.

The fat man paused, surveyed us all, and boked to Hugo. At the same moment the manager appeared from the inner office, included the whole party in a dignified salutation and beckoned them to follow him. The last to pass through the closing door was the little doctor Riquet, who sent us a comical, wry sort of grimace as he disappeared.

"That was Thiers", said Hugo under his breath to me, "the local chief of police."

After about ten minutes the chief of police came out, followed by thegendarme, to whom he gave a whispered direction. He waited till the man had left the room and then turned to us. "Gentlemen," he said, "you, Monsieur Stern, and you, monsieur, will now have the goodness to tell me what you know of this unfortunate affair."

"Just a minute Thiers", said Hugo. The other's manner when addressing him had been affable, and it was obvious that he recognized in him a well-known and valued local resident. "You might tell us one thing first, and then all the information we have at your disposal. Was the girl murdered?"

The other shrugged, sighed, and spread out his hands. "It would appear so," he admitted. "Well, then, here's what we know." And with an admirable pithiness, Hugo told the story of our first encounter with the girl and our subsequent sight of her at the mannequin show. When he had done, the fat man raised his eyebrows.

"You say that neither you nor your friends had seen her before?" he pondered. "but that Monsieur Geiss admitted himself to be acquainted with her?"

BOWEN TO MAKE ANOTHER TRIAL TO GET PLATES

Says Welfare Department Bid Was Lower than Macomb Firm's

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 11.—(AP)—A. L. Bowen, Director of Public Welfare, served notice today he would make a "last ditch" legal fight in his campaign to force the manufacture in Stateville penitentiary of Illinois license plates.

He said the welfare department's bid for the 1939 plates was a cent a plate lower than that of Hemp & Company of Macomb which was given the contract by Secretary of State Edward J. Hughes.

"I simply wish to find out whether the 'state use' law is valid," Bowen said. Mandamus proceedings to compel the secretary of state to let the license plate contract to the welfare department have been appealed to the Supreme Court.

"I am notifying Hemp & Company, the state auditor and the state treasurer that the department of public welfare intends to take every legal step possible to secure its rights and that if they proceed under this contract it will be at the risk of a decision in favor of the department nullifying the contract," Bowen said.

Not "Union Labor."

The director said the Macomb company doesn't employ "recognized union labor" and quoted the National Labor Relations Board as saying its wage scales are "far below recognized rates in other industries for similar work."

Hughes, holding the prison work not up to the standard of private companies, has let recent license plate contracts to industrial plants. The Hemp firm made the 1938 plates.

Bowen said that manufacturers and labor greed to the passage in 1931 of the "state use" law for prison industries. No Illinois manufacturer made license plates then and the state spent considerable money for equipment now idle at Stateville.

"There are 6,100 prisoners in Joliet branch," Bowen said. "The general social and economic welfare of Illinois requires that they have employment."

GUARDSMEN TO BREAK CAMP AT ROCKFORD SOON

Camp Grant, Ill., Aug. 11.—(AP)—Governor Horner today was to review the Illinois National Guard, comprising 10,340 men, the largest assemblage of troops in the state since the World War.

Yesterday the Guardsmen staged their annual war games, with the 129th and 130th infantry successfully executing a flank movement against the defending 108th infantry.

The weatherman accounted for all of the casualties in the war games—25 Guardsmen suffering heat prostration and two horses dying on the march from bivouac. Temperatures were in the high 90's.

The 108th, greatly outnumbered, surrendered the camp after matching six hours of maneuvering on the part of the 33rd division.

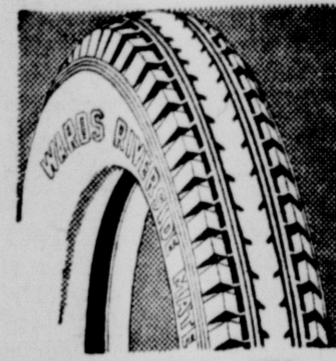

The 125th field artillery arrived from Camp McCoy at Sparta, Wis., yesterday and will pass in review with the Guardsmen who have been here for the past two weeks. The annual encampment closes this week end with the first regiments breaking camp tomorrow.

WITHERS WINS HIS OWN BALL GAME FOR INU

California Market Team Defeated in Overtime Game Last Night

The I. N. U. team went out to the Airport park last night and blew its breath on the crown of the league-leading California Market and left an unsightly tarnish by a stinging 2 to 1 defeat.

With the score tied up at one and one in the last of an overtime inning Withers, who was hurrying for the I. N. U. company, came to bat to win his own ball game by beating out a hit over second base to score Emmert from third.

It was anybody's game until the very end and probably one of the hardest fought affairs the diamond has seen this season.

The I. N. U. boys were out for the kill and wasted no time in putting that idea across when in the last of the first Red Flanagan came to bat as the first man up and whammed out a homer on the first ball pitched. This lead was maintained until the first of the fifth when a single by Kuhn drove in Ellis for the California Market's only score.

Serious Threat. Just before that, in the fourth chapter, the league leaders made a serious threat when Murphy took first on a hit over third base. Bellos took first on a fielder's choice and Murphy went down at the plate. Haselburg took "another fielder's choice" during a play on Bellos and both runners advanced on a bunt by Witzleb. Potts popped up to the pitcher for the second out and Boyd forced out Witzleb at first retiring the side.

In the last of the eighth for I. N. U. Krug went down on a catch in shortfield. Emmert beat out a hit over first base and took third on a double by E. Flanagan. Hall took first to load the bases on an error by the Market's pitcher. Red Flanagan whiffed for the second out and Withers came up to slam one out over second base to score the winning run.

Withers had excellent support by both the infield and outfield last night and was hit only six times and walked three.

KELLARS DEFEATED. In the nightcap game Black Farms defeated Kellars by a score of 8 to 4 as the farmers tramped down a lane that had no turning. Neither pitcher was in top form last night and Benson for the farm lads walked nine and eleven hits were collected off the hurling of Carlson on the mound for Kellars. All of this showed in the scoring and nothing the field could do was able to prevent it.

The Black Farms team took five runs in the first of the second, one a homer by Glessner and two scored on a double by C. Bohlen who came in on a double by Littrell. Littrell scored after Benson drove one out to the rightfielder.

In the fourth inning Littrell took a non-stop trip around bases for another tally; Holland scored in the sixth on a bunt by C. Bohlen, making good the base he took on an error in left field. A hit

AT OREGON.

The California Market softball outfit will play an Oregon team in the neighbors' back yard.

VOTING CURFEW.

Friday night is the last time for voting in the Telegraph balloting for the All-Star softball team. No ballots will be counted after Friday night's games at the Airport.

BOWLERS HAPPY.

Frank Duschback, owner of the Dixon Recreation, today announced that the bowling season will open Saturday. The six alleys have been thoroughly refinished and appear in perfect condition while the interior of the rooms has been redecorated.

GAMES TONIGHT.

The two softball games which were rained out Monday night will be played tonight at the Airport. This means that Medusa and Dixon Fruit company will start the evening's show and a postponed affair between the Knacks and Home Lumber will close the performance.

JINXED FIGHT.

Lou Ambers and Henry Armstrong are jinxed—last night a downpour postponed the championship fight which was to be held at the Polo Grounds in New York; the public just doesn't take to the idea of buying ducks for the affair; and now the fight has been transferred to Madison Square Garden where it will be held next week unless the roof caves in.

JUNIOR LEGION GAME.

The Junior American Legion All-Stars will play the Lawson Transfer Junior Legion team at Reynolds field Sunday. The game is set to start at 2:30. The Legion boys have been playing heads up ball all season and are out to avenge the defeat this Rockford team gave them recently at Rockford by a 5 to 3 score. Local fans are expected to show a great deal of interest in the contest on Sunday.

YESTERDAY'S STARS.

Add to the local edition of Yesterday's Stars: Leber and McReynolds of I. N. U. who displayed fine work at shortstop position and first base for six put outs last night; Krug of I. N. U. for a swell running catch in left field; Withers for winning his own ball game; Red Flanagan for his home run on first ball pitched; Boyd of California Market for a nifty nab in center field; Neuhauser playing an on-the-toes game behind the plate for Kellars and a neat peg to second to catch Holland stealing; Littrell of Black Farms for a double and home run in three trips to plate.

Fountain pens were in use before 1786.

LOCAL PIRATES LOSE, 4-1, TO THE WHITE SOX

The galloping White Sox in the Junior Legion league took the Pirates into camp last night to the tune of 4 to 1. It was a good game and both teams played errorless ball. This is the second one of the leading teams the White Sox have knocked off. They defeated the Indians last week by a score of 7 to 4. This bunches three teams in the top brackets of the league standings and there is a possibility some of the postponed games may have to be played off to decide the winner. On Friday night the Cubs tackle the Tigers. Both of these teams have demonstrated great improvement and fans are urged to get out and support their favorites.

Fearing his wicked son had bribed domestics to poison him, King Charles VII. of France, abstained from eating to such an extent that he actually starved himself to death amidst royal wealth and plentiful food. He lived from 1403 to 1461.

So much money poured out of France for the purchase of Italian and Flemish lace during the reign of Louis XIII and Louis XIV that royal edicts were passed forbidding all classes below certain ranks to wear lace-trimmed garments or carry lace handkerchiefs.

Not Much Difference Between a Pat and Tossed Pop Bottle

By SID FEDER

Associated Press Sports Writer
You never can tell in this baseball business. The fellow who draws his pay-check every two weeks from the club treasurer will tell you it's champagne one day, water the next; a limousine today and a hitchhike tomorrow.

They know there isn't an awful lot of difference between a pat on the back and a pop bottle out of the stands.

Take a look at a couple of this year's example—Long Lonnie Warneke, one of the few reasons the St. Louis Cardinals are still in the National League, and Johnny Vander Meer, the double-no-hit kid, whose tossing tricks earlier in the year boosted the Cincinnati Reds into the money.

For weeks, Long Lon was getting exactly nowhere. And Frankie Frisch who has enough worries (things being what they are with the gasless gas housers) had just one more reason for his thinning grey locks.

Not Going Anywhere

It's not that the Cards are going anywhere at any great rate, even now. But still the six-footer from Arkansas has returned to form, gone the route in five of his last six starts, allowed just eight runs in 52 innings and won four out of five, three of them by shutouts.

Lonnie's latest was a four-hit 5-0 whitewashing over the league-leading Pittsburgh Pirates yesterday in a game out to seven innings by rain. It ended the Bucs' three-game winning streak and gave Warneke the distinction of blanking them for the first time since July 20.

Vander Meer, now, has been running just the reverse. Young Johnny tossed two no-hitters in a row, if you remember, and was instantly labeled the hottest thing to come down the pike in years.

But Johnny has failed to go the route in his last five starts, boasts just one victory in seven trips to the post since mid-July, and has been tagged for 26 runs in about 45 innings, which goes to show you how fast things can change. Yesterday he met against the Chicago Cubs, but his boom-boom ball was belted for four runs in the eighth frame, and the Happy Hartnests took a 6-3 decision.

Cubs Climb Half-a-Game

By the win, the Cubs climbed to within half-a-game of the New York Giants, who were given a neat and thorough going over by the Boston Bees, 8-2, and remainder 6½ games off the Pittsburgh pace. The scheduled Philadelphia-Brooklyn night game was rained out.

The Yankees held their five-game edge in the American League by nipping the Senators, 12-11, in a wild ten-inning affair. A walk with the bases loaded forced in the winning run. Cleveland's second-place Indians had to stage a five-run rally in the ninth to top the St. Louis Browns, 9-6.

Swingin' Sammp Chapman celebrated his return to the Athletics' lineup with a two-run homer that beat the Boston Red Sox, 5-3. The Chicago White Sox clubbed for pitchers for 15 hits to nose out the Bees, 8-7.

Yesterday's Stars

By The Associated Press

Sam Chapman, Athletics — His homer with mate aboard proved winning margin in 5-3 win over Red Sox.

Vince DiMaggio, Bees — Hit double, two singles, drove in two runs and scored two in 8-2 victory over Giants.

Joe Gordon, Yankees — Hit homer and double driving in three runs, in 12-11 triumph over Senators.

Lon Warneke, Cardinals — Tossed four-hitter to blank Pirates 5-0.

Hal Trosky, Indians — His ninth-inning homer with two aboard featured winning rally over Browns.

Frank Denaree, Cubs — Clouted two-run homer in winning rally over Reds.

Mike Kreevich, White Sox — Hit four-for-four, driving in two runs, in 8-7 win over Tigers.

Only games scheduled.

Bits of Gossip of Sports Picked Up By AP Writer

By EDDIE BRIETZ

New York, Aug. 11.—(AP)—It was a jinx fight from the day it was signed. . . Nobody warned up to it. . . It never was an outdoor show, anyway and now they've got it where it belongs—in the Garden. . . From the start ticket sales have lagged, which discouraged the fighters as well as their pilots. . . Not one in 20 ever gave Ambers a chance against Armstrong and that hurt. . . Another thing, interest in Schmeling and Louis reached such a high peak that when the reaction finally set in. . . The sports world still is talking about that fight.

Can't keep football news from sneaking onto the sport pages, boys. . . Here's George Halas, owner of the Chicago Bears, predicting the 1938 season will be one of the most outstanding in history. . . And out at Ann Arbor, they're getting ready for a crowd of 75,000 for the Michigan-Michigan State game largely because of the excitement stirred by the arrival of Fritz Crisler at Michigan. . . Arnold Heber, Green Bay Packer passing star, has gained 4,738 yards (almost three miles) on his tosses since 1932. . . And just sit back and watch Irish Carroll, Catholic U. backfield star, go for the colliethers in the all star game.

Billy Terry will stand pat on the present Giant lineup for the rest of the season. . . Joe McCarthy thinks the Indians will blow and that Boston and Chicago will furnish the Yanks headaches from now on. . . Pittsburgh fans already have the Pirates "in." They're busy getting up World Series contests and all. . . But the manager of one of the largest hotels is kicking himself because he reserved most of his place for a convention during the entire first week in October. . . Nick Altrock, Washington's venerable coach, gives Bob Feller less than four more years in the majors.

In a lawsuit of a quarter century ago, an English barrister made a speech that lasted 45 days.

Five daughters survive, Mrs. Edith Harris, Rochelle, Mrs. Laura Southwick, Payne's Point, Mrs. Clara Hjelm, Chicago, Mrs. Lella Marsh, Logansport, Ind., and Mrs. Lillie Cheperka, Elgin; also fifteen grandchildren and two half brothers, George and Charles Howard, residing near Stillman Valley.
